GRADING RUBRIC

Project Phase Final
Requirement	Points Assigned
Front End Framework: The project needs to utilize a front end frame work, either Angular or React, that successfully connects to the back end technology.	20
Back End Framework: The project needs to utilize a back end technology, either Spring or DotNet or Express, that successfully connects to the front end framework and sucessfully pulls data from the connected database.	20
Database: The project needs to utilize a database, either MongoDB or SQLite or MySQL, that successfully communicates with the front and back end technologies.	20
Styled with CSS: The project needs to utilize some form of CSS to style the project.	15
Responsive: The project should aim to provide an optimal viewing experience—easy reading and navigation with a minimum of resizing, panning, and scrolling—across a wide range of devices.	15
Slide Presentation: A slide deck must accompany your presentation of the live demonstration of the group project. The slides should include information about the team, technologies used, how each team member contributed to the project, obstacles faced during development and how those obstacles were overcame, and stretch goals for continued development of the project	20
Professionalism: Each member of the team should conduct themselves in a professional manner. Profanity should never be used during the presentation. Each team member should respect the other members of the team and there should be no bad mouthing any other members during the presentation. Each team member should be dressed professionally, as if they were going to an interview, and the background of each team member should be respectful and professional. For example, the background of your camera should not be your bedframe or contain inappropriate images.	20
Overall Attendance: Attendance is calculated each week (5 points for each week) through slack communication and communication with fellow team members, the group tech resident, and the instructor. There should be at least 3 separate occassions of communication from each student each week.	30
Overall Participation: Participation is calculated by the amount of coding contribution given by each team member each week. This is recorded with the number of commits on the GitHub repository from each team member. Each member should have at least one commit per week.	90
